

This custom engine harness is designed to go into almost any full body car. The grommet is moveable so you can place the harness onto the firewall and fit nicely. It is set up for a stock driveline and comes with a heated O2 sensor, VSS converter, VSS sender and its own fuse box. Simple 3 wire hookup to key switch or toggle switch. Has provisions for air conditioning and lockup converter.